Preparing For Grand Fair Meet-

With a view of making the sixty-sixth annual exhibition of the Bourbon County Agricultural Society the grandest success in the history of the organization, there has been unusual activity in the past few weeks to bring together the largest crowds and most representative show stock in the country, for the exhibition which will be held here the first week in

Secretary Chas. Webber, during the past two weeks has made much progress in boosting the Bourbon Fair and has visited half a dozen towns, where, with several able assistants, he has given the old Bourbon Fair a large amount of publicty. Wednesday he spent the day in Georgetown, and Thursday he visited the Mercer County

The catalogue, which was recently isqued contains many attractive premiums and each day will have its special features, which will, without doubt, bring together some of the very finest show stock this country ever produced. Every day promises to be one of many features so far as pre miums are concerned and many exhib itors will avail themselves of the op portunity to list their show stock in the rings offering exceptional values.

An added feature of the fair this year will be the $100 in premiums offered in the suckling male class. This ring is divided into four moneys and the blue ribbon will net the owner the handsome sumof $50. Aside from this there are the regular premiums, which have been offered year after among them being those for fine harness geldings and the special premium for harness horses, which will be the attractions of interest on the third day of the meeting.

Suit To Break Wilson's Will Filed

The last will and testament of the ate Horace Wilson, formerly Secretary of the Kentucky Trutting Horse Breeders' Association, in bequeathing all his property to Mrs. Blanche Berndt Mehaffey, of Cincinnati, is contested by a statement of appeal filed by Charles T. Wilson, of New York. in the office of James C. Rogers, Clerk of the Fayette Circuit Court Wednesday afternoon, and asking that the order of the County Court in May admitting the will to probate he set aside. The appellants state that he is the brother-in-law and only heir of Hor-

Mrs. Mehaeffy and Mr. D. B. Hon-aker are made the defendants to the suit. Colonel R. B. Franklin, of Lex-ington, and R. C. Talbott, of Paris, are attorneys for Mr. Wilson, who says that he is the brother and only heir of the decedent.

Fiscal Court in Regular Session.

The Bourbon Fiscal Court at its regular monthly meeting, held yesteday, allowed turnpike claims amounting to the sum of $3.522.53. The work on the turnoikes, which was let at a recent meeting of the court, has about all been completed.

Judge Denis Dundon presided over the meeting, which was attended by Squires L. J. Fretwell, E. P. Thomason, R. H. Burris, B. F. Stipp, O. B. Lloyd, J. N. Shropshire and G. K. Redmon. No matters of great importance came up at the meeting. The report of Road Supervisor C. F. Redmon, was read and after being [accepted by the court, was ordered made of record.

The sum of $2,500 was appropriated for the use of the Road Supervisor for the month of August. Accounts to the amount of $411.90 were allowed and ordered paid.

Committees composed of Squires Lloyd, Thomason, Burris and Shropshire were appointed by the court to select suitable quarries in the precincts of Hutchison and Centerville and on the Jackstown pike. County Treasurer Silas E. Bedford vas ordered to borrow from the Hamilton Fund the sum of $4,000 for use by the county, payable January 1, 1913, and bearing 6 per cent interest. | The County Treasurer was also ordered to borrow the sum of $2,000 for use in the general and turnpike funds.

Jailer Joe Farris filed a report for the months of May, June and July, which showed to balance of $6321. due the county. Court adjourned to August 31.
